

United Crusade To Give Awards

Formal recognition will be given to more than 60 local firms, employ groups, newspaper publishers, and United Way agencies at the Harbor area United Crusade annual awards dinner tonight at the Indian Village restaurant.

Campaign chairman for the 1967 combined United Way-Ned Cross appeal H. David Holland has scheduled a social period at 6:30 p.m. with dinner at 7 p.m.

"We are extremely anxious to honor the men and women who generously contribute both money and time to make last fall's campaign the most successful ever conducted in this area," declared Holland, who is a Torrance banker.

Lewis Fetherolf
Requiem mass for Lewis G. Fetherolf, 23731 Cypress Ave., will be celebrated Friday at 9:30 a.m. at the Church of the Nativity. Rosary will be said Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel.

Mr. Fetherolf, who had lived in Torrance since 1919, was born April 29, 1882, in Kansas and died Sunday. He was the oldest active member of the Redondo Beach Eagles Lodge and a veteran of the Spanish American War.

He is survived by a daughter, Dorothy L. Cook of Torrance; a son, Francis Fetherolf of Walla Walla, Wash.; a sister, Blanche Pigg of Los Angeles; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Dewey Ossea
Funeral services for Dewey Ossea, who died last Saturday, were conducted this morning in the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel with Chaplain Ray Harris of the Redondo Beach Eagles officiating.

Mr. Ossea, a resident of the area for 42 years, was born Sept. 24, 1903, in Tennessee. He had been employed by U.S. Steel for 31 years and made his home at 1739 Border Ave.

Surviving Mr. Ossea are his widow, Freda of Torrance; four daughters, Martha Beckman of Lomita, Alice Bidwell of New Jersey, Helen Spineto of Long Beach, and Josephine Gallinger of Redondo Beach; a sister, Mary Hawk of San Clemente, Calif.; a brother, Robert Ossea of Redondo Beach; and eight grandchildren.

Margaret Leamon
Requiem mass for Margaret S. Leamon, 23022 Samuel St., was celebrated yesterday at the Church of the Nativity. Rosary was said Monday evening at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel.

Mrs. Leamon, a resident of the area for 17 years, was born May 31, 1888, in Ohio and died last Saturday.

She is survived by two daughters, Margaret M. Briekrenz of Torrance and Bernice Skowrowek of Missouri; a son, James Neil of Garden Grove; a sister, Katherine Keller of Illinois; 11 grandchildren; and three great grandchildren.

Burial was in Good Shepherd Cemetery in Huntington Beach.

Deaths

Rees, 37, of Los Angeles struck his car.

A third car driven by Louis Ledoux, 51, of Long Beach then struck the Rees car.

THE IMPACT—which did about $300 damage to Dickson's vehicle—apparently snapped Victor's spinal cord. The impact knocked Victor out of his shoes, the officer said.

The father said he was taking his son—who had just turned eight Saturday—and a neighbor boy, John Cruz Jr., 12, of 21145 S. Caspian Way, whose birthday was Thursday, to an outing at Busch Gardens Park.
